MR. CLEVELAND SPEAKS

An Appeal to the Democracy for Sound Money.

THIRD TERM RENOUNCED?

Desires Hereafter Only "to Occupy the Place of a Private,"

And Meanwhile Hopes He May Not He Blamed for Saying that the Adoption of a Free Colunge Platform at Chicago Would Result in Immediate and Lasting Disaster to the Party-Thinks the Freesilver Belusion Would Hardly Survive the Discussion of a Single Campaign Washington, June 16 .- President Cleveland to-day made the following statement:

"I have made no figures as to the probable action of delegates already chosen or to be chosen to the Democratic National Convention, but I refuse to believe that when the time arrives for deliberate action there will be engrafted upon our Democratio creed a demand for the free, unlimited, and independent coinage of silver. I cannot believe this, because I know the Democratic party is neither unpatriotic nor foolish. and because it seems so clear to me that such a course will inflict a very great injury upor every interest of our country, which it has been the mission of Democracy to advance, and will result in lasting disaster to ou party organization. There is little hope that as means of success this free eliver proposition, after its thorough discussion during a political campaign, will attract a majority of the voters of the country. It must be that many of the illusions influencing those now relying upon this alleged panaces for their ills will be dispelled before the time comes for them to cast their ballots, which will express their sober secand thoughts. The adoption by the Democracy

"This ought sufficiently to account for my anxiety that no mistake be made at our party Convention. In my opinion no effort should be spared to secure such action of the delegates as will avert party demoralization.

ment to true Democracy is so strong that I con-

of the country's good.

"It is a place for consultation and comparison of views, and those Democrats who believe in the cause of sound money should there be heard and be constantly in evidence.

"A cause worth fighting for is worth fighting for to the end. If sound money Democrats supse there is danger of a mistake being made such danger should stimulate their activity in averting it instead of creating discouragement.

"I am very far from arrogating to myself a controlling influence upon the pelicy of my party; but as an unflinching Democrat who has been honored by his party and who desires hereafter no greater political privilege than to occupy the place of private in its ranks, I hope I may not be blamed for saying thus much at this time, in the interest, as it seems to me, of the grand old organization, so rich in honorable traditions, so justly proud of its achieve ments, and always so undaunted and brave in its battles for the people's welfare."

MAINE DEMOCRATS FOR SILVER.

The State Convention May Follow the Fourth District's Declaration.

PORTLAND, Me., June 16.-The Democratic State Convention will meet here to-morrow to elect delegates at large to Chicago. It seems more than possible now that the delegates will stand on a silver platform.

To-night the Young Men's Democratic Club gave a banquet to the delegates, and the political sensation of the day was sprung when George Fred Williams, who was the Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts last year and is this year a delegate at large to Chicago, made a speech which practically de-States until now, but he declares that Republican misrule has brought about the present de-

Ex-Senator Bradley was present and he seems to dominate the delegates. He declares that silver will win. Mr. Williams said, in part:

"I have never been doubted, I believe, as a stanch friend of the gold standard. I have fought its battles for several years before the people and in Congress. I go to Chicago to register the will of the Democracy of Massachusetts. But before either National Convention has made up its issues. I wish to say to the people who have trusted my patriotism upon the money question, that as between absolute free coinage of silver and continued stagnation, followed by another wreck of our gold standard by Republican legislation or by a Republican President, I am convinced that the interests of the country would be best served by the former. "I say this without abating from my lovalty to the gold standard; but if I am to choose between two evils I unhesitatingly choose a free-silver standard rather than a toppling gold standard, to be again loaded with Sherman-McKinley dynamite, which will spring the ruin of 1893 wider, and deeper, and deadlier than before. "Belleving as I do that our present money fought its battles for several years before the

of 1893 wider, and deeper, and deadlier than before.

"Belleving as I do that our present money system cannot survive the temporizing of Mr. McKinley, I am satisfied that a free-coinage President will do less harm to the country. A division in our ranks would probably elect Mr. McKinley, and I decline in advance to bolt an honest Democratic candidate to assist in the election of the representative of monopoly, and to desert the forces which alone can rescue the country from industrial depression."

The Convention to-morrow may declare for gold, but there will be a good daal of opposition. The Hon. Arthur Sewall, the member of the National Committee who espoused free silver some time ago, and who it was expected would be jumped from the committee in consequence, may not be drepped after all. The Routblicans

National Committee who espoused free aliver some time ago, and who it was expected would be jumped from the committee in consequence, may not be dropped after all. The Republicans have made an unpopular nomination for Governor, and this and the probable defeat of Reed at St. Louis have encouraged the Democrats, who expect to conduct a lively campaign, ander these conditions will be very apathetic, and should fleed retues a renomination to Congress, which his closest friends believe is not unlikely, the bottom would be all knocked out of the G. O. P. fight.

It looks now as if the Democratic nomination for the conditions will go to Edward H. Winslow, President of the Portland Board of Trade and astrong sound-money man. Seth C. Gordon of Portland, John Scott of Eath, and Charles L. Snow of Bongor will be delegates at large to Chicago, with a contest between M. R. Leighton and Fred Plaisted of Augusta for fourth place.

Bangon, Me. June 16.—The Democrats of the Fourth district to-day nominated A. J. Classe of Sebes for Congress and declared for the "Tree coinage of silver 46 to 1," The delegates to Chicago were instructed to vote for a free-sliver plank in the platform.

Wattiviller, Me., June 16.—The Democratic Third District Convention to-day nominated delegates to Chicago, and Melvin O. Holway of Augusta was nominated for congress. The resolutions adopted favor the use of gold and silver as standard money and the colnage of botth without discrimination, surrounded by such safeguards as shall insure a parity of the

NEW ORLEARS, June 16.-The Democratic State Convention to elect delegates to the Na tional Convention at Chicago met at Baton l'ouge last night. It confined itself to elect iny delegates, and to the adoption of suitable resolutions. The following delegates were the delegates to vote for free sliver in the Convention, and to vote as a unit. The Convention was five to one for free sliver, and the sound money men made only one feeble protest. When the delegates had been elected by the several districts, they were made to come before the Convention and piedge themselves to free sliver. Mr. Marreno of the Second district was disinclined to do this. The soundmoney men protested against the delegates being thus humiliated, but the majority would not hear them, and refused to approve the election of Mareno tuless he piedged himself to support free sliver, which he finally did. A minority report in favor of gold and sliver was voted down, also one denouncing the President for his recent civil service extension. The resolutions say nothing else about the President, and in no way appland his Administration. They declare for the improvement of the Mississippi litiver and the protection of sugar and rice, and denounce the A. P. A.

SILVER MEN AT CHICAGO.

WASHINGTON, June 16. Senator Jones of Arkansas, who heads the Arkansas delegation to the Chicago Convention, and who is one of the leading men in the silver movement, has invited each silver delegation to the Convention to send one representative to Chicago to meet in conference there on Tuesday, June 30, one week prior to the assembling of the Democratic National Convention. This body of men will be in the nature of a "steering committee," will meet delegates upon their arrival, and have general charge of the interests of the silver general charge of the interests of the silver forces at Chicago.

One of the objects of the early meeting of this conference is to watch the action of the Executive Committee of the National Democratic Committee and the full committee liself, so that no action may be taken by them adverse to the Interests of the silver forces. Senator Jones's purpose is to leave no point unguarded by which the silver forces may receive a setback by any action of the anti-silver contingent of the party.

Man Not Decided On. Senator Hill spent yesterday at the Hotel Normandie and went to his home at Albany in the evening. During the day he talked with ex-Gov. Flower and William F. and John C. Sheehan. After the talk ex-Gov. Flower admitted that the State Convention concurring mitted that the State Convention concurring three of the delegates at large to the National Convention will be Senator Hill, Senator Murphy, and himself. Who the fourth man will be is still a matter of doubt, Ex-Mayor Grace has been talked of and ex-Postmaster Gen. Bissell of Buffalo.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 16 .- A delegation of Missourians headed by the Hon, George W. Allen, delegate at large to the Chicago Convention, has been here for two days in the interest of the Bland movement.

To-day it was ascertained that many of the delegates to the State Convention, which meets clared for silver. He has been one of the to-morrow, are in favor of endorsing Sen-most outspoken gold men in the New England ator James K. The Tammany Hall Executive Committee will meet at Tammany Hall this afternoon at 4 'clock to make final arrangements for the ransportation of the organization to the State Convention at Saratoga on June 24.
Corporation Counsel Scott was elected a delegate to the Convention from the Twenty-seventh Assembly district last night. The other delegates elected from that district are Charles F. Allen and Nelson Smith.

LAS VEGAS, N. M., June 16,-The Democratic State Convention yesterday adopted a platform favoring free coinage at 16 to 1, favoring an in come tax, and endorsing Bland for the Presi-dency. YOUNG VANDERBILT ILL.

WEDDING WITH MISS GRACE WIL-SON MAY BE PUT OFF.

The Young Man Laid Up With Inflamma-tory Rheumatism at the House of Ris Father, Cornelius Vanderbilt - Bra, Draper and Janeway Attending Him, It was announced last night that Mr. Cornelius Canderbilt, Jr., whose marriage to Miss Grace Wilson has been set for Thursday, is seriously Ill with Inflammatory rheumatism at the home of his father, 1 West Fifty-seventh street.

Young Mr. Vanderbilt has been confined to his bed since Monday and is under the care of Drs. Draper and Janeway. He felt well on Sunday morning, but after going out in the rain storm he suffered a relapse of rheumatism, to which he has been subject for some time. On Monday he was unable to leave his bed and his ondition became such that Drs. Janeway and Draper were summoned.

They found Mr. Vanderbilt in great pain. He grew worse during the day and passed a bad night. Yesterday, however, he improved considerably and he was resting easily last night, Owing to the illness of Mr. Vanderbilt it is thought that the wedding may have to be post-

When an unauthentic announcement of the engagement and coming marriage of young Mr. Vanderbilt and Miss Wilson was made early in the present year it was stated that the parents of Mr. Vanderbilt objected to the union because of the youth of their son, who is but 22 years of age and younger than Miss Wilson. The announcement last week of the engagement was authen ticated by the speedy issue of invitations to the wedding, the ceremony being fixed for to-morrow at 12:30 P. M. at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson, 511 Fifth avenue. This second announcement was accompanied by the statement that young Mr. Vanderbilt's parents were just as bitterly opposed to his union with Miss Wilson as they had been last year when they tried to break off the friendship which had grown up between the young people. Young Mr. Vanderbilt was graduated from Yale last year and went to Newport, where he met Miss Wilson. As soon as his parents became aware of the nature of his regard for the young lady they sent him to Europe. Miss Wilson was a passenger on the same steamship, and young Vanderbilt met her frequently on the Continent. One of the stories which have been told regarding this engagement and the objection of the parents of the young man is that invitations to the wedding were not sent to the Vanderbiits by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson. Another was that the Vanderbilts would not attend if they were invited. The first of these stories was untrue. Miss Wilson's trousseau was purchased in Paris last spring. Her bridal dress has been already described in the public press, and so have the proposed corations at the house on the occasion of the wedding. Florists bave been engaged to convert the Wilson drawing room into a sort of floral chapel with Gothic arches and an altar of

Miss Wilson herself has been very active in he preparations for the wedding, and most of the invitations-there are about 150 out-were

It is true that he is a contingent beneficiary under the will of his grandfather, the late William H. Vanderbilt, but the contingency which would put him in actual possession of : million doltars is reasonably remote. Wilson's father is the possessor of a very large

Last year the Shepardites were treated with marked consideration, receiving one-third representation at the State Convention in the expectation at the state devention in the expectation that they would return home and harmonize with the regular Democracy, instead of doing this they nut up a ticket of their own and polled just enough votes to secure the election of the Republican candidates. This year the proposition to give them any standing whatever in the Convention will be resolutely consider.

Sr. Loris, June 16.-Notwithstanding the fact that Chairman Taubeneck of the Populists declares that no meeting of the National Committee of the Populist party has yet been called, members of that body continue to arrive in the city, professing to be simply spectators. Mr. Roselle, fessing to be simply speciators. Mr. Roselle, Chairman of the State Committee, says there is no foundation for the rumor or a irre silver-Populist conference. Nevertheless, one of the silver designates from North a arolina says:

"There is a movement on foot to unite the free-silver hemograph, irre-silver Republicans, and Populists. The Populists and free-silver leaders are gathering here waiting to see what is done by the free-silver Republicans in the Convention. It is probable some action looking to a union of the free-silver elements will then be taken."

POUATELLO, Idaho, June 16 .- The Democratic State Convention opened in this city to-day. Treathe Pittsburgh Lispatch.

Christ Kautarian of Thirteenth street kissed Mrs. Mary Marmel of Pike, street yesterday morning, and he has been crying ever since.

Christ had been looking at Mrs. Marmel for a long time. Mrs. Marmel is said to be worth looking at. Christ had been looking at mrs. Marmel for a long time. Mrs. Marmel is said to be worth looking at. Christ hadly made up his mind yesterday forenoon, walked into Mrs. Marmel's house, found her busy in the kitchen, threw his arms around her, and gave her a smacking kiss on the mouth, which was mistaken by some of the residents of the Ninth ward for an explosion in Shoenberger's mill. Christ wiped his lips and ran.

Mrs. Marmel was hopping mad. She put on her honnet and hurried to the office of Alderman Brophy, where she declared her desire to sac Kautarian for $5,000 damages. The Alderman was not in the damage suit business, but misted action for assault and battery. This seemed feeble under the circumstances, but Mrs. Marmel agreed. The constable found Kautarian lying under an old chicken coop on the river back, looking at the western sky and induging in memorial reveries. When he was arrested he began to cry, and said he would drawn himself before he would go to the pententary.

At the Alderman's office he was confronted by drawn himself before he would go to the pent-tentiary. At the Aiderman's office he was confronted by the angry Mrs. Marmel, who insisted that the rude man should be sent to jail. Kautarian pleaded dolefully, amid childlike tears. He averred that he could not help it. Mrs. Marmel was so beautiful, so perfectly lovely, that it turned his head, and then he cried some more. Mrs. Marmel blushed and said that if Christ would pay the costs and go away she would let thim off. Christ paid the costs and packed his trunk. The constable accompanied him to the depot, where he took a train for New York, still crying. The people out on Penn avenue are lay-ing even bets that he will be back inside of four weeks.

Mrs. Bland's Ample Explanation. From the Chicago linearly

I remember a story of Mrs. Bland that caused a great deal of amusement here at the time, but clevated her in the estimation of good people who believe that the duties of wirehood and motherhood should not be sacrificed for social who believe that the duties of wifehood and motherhood should not be sacrificed for social pleasure. It was during the first Cleveland administration, shortly after the Precident's marriage, when his bride was giving a series of iuncheous to women in official life.

A party of thirty or forty ladies were gathered in the Blue Room at the White House one day, by invitation, when every body present perceived, by those subtle influences that cannot be evaded or suppressed, that somebody was fardy, and luncheon was being delayed for that reason. Finally Mrs. Cleveland arose and said, swestly, that aithough one of the guests had not yet arrived, she would not wait any ionger, and led the way to the dining room. The party was scarcely scated there before Mrs. Bland came houncing in, her cheeks flushed and her eyes shaining with excitoment. She went at once to the President's wife at the head of the table, and, giving her a resounding smack on either cheek exclaimed, in a voice that was audible to everybody:

"Oh, Mrs. Cleveland, I do hope that you will excuse me. I didn't mean to be late, but I couldn't help it. I was all dressed, and was just leaving the house, when baby woke up crying, and I had to stop and nurse him."

PERSECUTING SIMONDS.

LONDON'S COUNTY COUNCIL AFTER THE FIRE CHIEF.

Chief Shaw's Successor the Victim of a Shameini Conspiracy—It Is Not Improb-able that the Scandal May Result in Strike of the Whole Fire Brigade. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUR.

LONDON, June 16 .- This afternoon the London County Council, the great municipal body which governs the whole of this metropolis save the small area known as the City, after a heated debate, resolved to call upon Capt. Simonds, Chief of the Fire Brigade, to resign. Capt. Simonds will refuse. The Council will dismiss him, and then he will bring an action against the Council for damages for wrongful dismissal. It is not altogether improbable that the whole rank and file of the Fire Brigade will strike work when their chiefis dismissed.

The affair is a grave scandal, and Capt

imonds is the victim of a shameful conspiracy to ruin him. The ostensible cause of the Council's action is a breach of discipline committed by Capt, Simonds in not informing the Council's Fire Committee that he was interested in the patent fire escape recently adopted for the brigade's use after open competition. It has sees blated that he was corruptly interested, but the charge was not seriously or openly made For this breach of discipline Capt. Simonds expressed regret, and the matter might well have been allowed to rest there, but Capt. Simonds almost from the moment he succeeded the famous Chief Shaw has been persecuted by certain members of the Conneil's Fire Commit tee because he refused to endorse recommendations which would have impaired the efficiency of the brigade. There is grave reason for believing that some of these Councillors are guilty of nepotism and corruption, which it is hoped Capt. Simonds will be able to prove in a court of law.

The United Press despatches on Sunday last told of the arrival in Constantinople of Mrs. Lee. She stated that she had made arrangements for providing homes and education for jorty-five orphans whose parents had been massacred, but the Turkish officials at Marasin had refused to allow the children to leave, saying that they would look after them. The officials also refused to allow Mrs. Lee to take her own three children with her, claiming that they were Turkish subjects, as they had been born in Turkey, and this notwithstanding the fact that both Mr, and Mrs. Lee are Americans. The Lees had great difficulty in getting the children away from Ma, ash, and probably would not have succeeded had it not been for the energetic action of Mr. Riddle, who had been notified of the situation.

The Choir Said She Took Up Room, and

the Dispute Led to a Fight. Passaic, N. J., June 16. - The brethren of B'nai Jacob, the local synagogue, have not dwelt together in peace since last Sunday nightwhen they held a business meeting to dispose of pews for the coming year.

Abraham Jaffe then contended that his wife, who is very stout, was entitled to a front seat in the gallery of the synagogue, because he had paid $400 for pews in another part of the house. The choir thought she took up too much room, and objected to making the concession. Trouble had been brewing for some time in the congregation, and it was pretty well known that a climex would be reached on Sunday night. While the matter of seats was under discussion in the meeting Abraham saffe made a disparaging remark about Frans Kapilin, one of the richest Hebrews on Second street. Thereupon Kapilin's father, Nathan, 75 years old, took Jaffe by the throat. This was a signal for a free fight.

Louis Goodman and his son Herman took the part of the Kaplins. Vice-President Richmond ran out to summen the police, and many of the non-combatants also ran into the street and set up a howl. Before the police could be found the fighters had fied. Yesterday Abraham Jaffe swore out warrants for Nathan Kaplin and Louis Goodman before Justice Bowker. This morning the police court was crowded with adherents of the rival factions. Justice Howker held the prisoners on their own recognizance for the Grand Jury. Later Herman Goodman was arrested on a warrant, on compliaint of a cousin of the Jaffes. Justice Weinberger Leld him in $500 bail.

YALE'S OARSMEN AT HENLEY.

Received by the Mayor and Then do Hard Work Over the Course. LONDON, June 16, -The Yale University oarsmen, who arrived at Southampton on board the steamer Berlin last evening, took a special train from that place at 8:20 o'clock this morning for Henley, where they will at once begin prac-tice for the events in which they are entered in the Henley regatta. The boat in which the crew will row in the race for the grand challenge cup was carried on four gondola cars attached to the train. Bob Cook, the coach of the crew, personally attended to chocking and securing the boat on the cars.

There was a large crowd at the station, and the Yale men were choered hearthy as the train started, which arrived at Henley at 11 o'clock. The visitors were met by the Mayor and the members of the corporation. The Mayor made a speech of welcome and introduced the entire crew to the Aldermen. The boat was carried from the station to the river and launched, after which it was paddled to the boat house and the men went to their quarters at March Mills. They are delighted with the place.

The Americans were on the course this afterneon, and began to pull at the rate of thirty-eight strokes a minute. They returned to their boat house after being out a short time, for the purpose of making some alterations in the outriggers. The men seemed to be in good form. The weather was extremely hot.

After arranging the outriggers on an old boat, the crow went out again and did hard work. Bob Cook coached the men, riding along the river bank on horselack. He took them below Temple Island at a steady stroke and then had them row up the course, allowing them to pail casy several times. Their average stroke was thirty-two to the minute. Although this was slower than when they were first out, the stroke was the olonger. The boat did not appear to

During the entire fight Dixon, although a ways the aggresser, made only two styles of casts, one for the heart and the other for the luminar. He battered Finherty heavily about the ribs during the first of the fight, but the blows at the neck were almost invariably ineffective. Fisherty's policy was simply to stand his opponent off for a draw, and very little leading was done by him. At the end of the twentieth round both men retired to their corners with hardly a scratch.

President Cleveland are making a hard fight for sound money.

Many of their strongest delegations are contested and should all be seated, which is hardly to be expected, it is doubtful if the administration forces can secure enough votes from the interior counties to overcome the apparent majority now held by the free-silver contingent.

It is predicted that Congressman Maguire, Senator Stephen M. White and W. W. Foote will undoubtedly be three of the four delegates at large. It is also understood that Senater White will receive complimentary mention as a candidate for Presidential nomination.
